Woe betide those who say that life is a pure illusion!

You hypocrite, how can you say it?

The pains of the past, have you forgotten?

If you lose a limb today, do you think it is an illusion?

You, you will regret having been born, "oh lucky one" born with two legs, but only to walk the path that I have described to you.

Woe to you in eternity if you, in wordless actions, do not begin to clean up the abomination that you have sown like weed, and finally replace it with the good.

Pieces of minced meat you will become, like food for sewer rats and cockroaches in eternity!

I Am the Lord! Amen.

Original text in Italian (originale testo in italiano; con delega di Dio (Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis):

Guai per chi dice che la vita è pura illusione!

Tu ipocrita, come lo puoi dire?

I dolori del passato, li hai dimenticati?

Se tu oggi un arto lo perdi, ritieni che è una illusione?

Tu, ti pentirai di essere nato, "oh fortunato" con due gambe che eri nato, ma per andare nel tragitto che io ti ho descritto.

Guai in enternità avrai, se tu in azioni senza parole non incominci a pulire l'abominio che come erbaccia hai seminato, e sostituendolo finalmente con il buono.

Pezzi di carne tritata diventerai, come cibo per pantegane e scarafaggi nell'eternità!

Io Sono il Signore! Amen.
